2018 Viejo Isaiasproduct-timed-pdf - Juana Cabernet Franc - $14 OFF its Regular Price! 94-point, $20 Argentinian Blockbuster!

Why We're Drinking It

Yes, you read that right! $14 OFF its regular price -- top-notch Cab Franc from Mendoza! How do we do it? Oh, and FREE SHIPPING on 4+ bottles!

It's rare enough to find a Cab Franc at this level from Mendoza (better known for Malbec and Cabernet, of course, but with a score like this? We have to agree with James Suckling on this one, it DOES drink like a St. Emilion from a warm, lush vintage -- sexy wine that will knock you out! Cab Franc lovers, ESPECIALLY take note! It's hard to even FIND this wine in the USA!

The signature wines project of Viejo Isaiás originated in 1998, when oenologist Rodrigo Manuel Romero, inspired by his grandfather's expertise, decided to plant vineyards in Lujan de Cuyo's Perdriel area. Rodrigo produced his first vintage in 2004. The grapes are sourced in Perdriel, Lujan de Cuyo and Upper river Mendoza region. Rocky, sandy soils located 950 meters above sea level, irrigated by flooding river waters coming from the Andes mountain range, make the perfect match for vine growing.

Did we mention $20 and free shipping on 4+ bottles?! While it lasts!

James Suckling, 94 points

"A very attractive nose with poached berries, delivered in such vibrant and fragrant style. This smells like a good St.-Emilion. The palate has round, fleshy red-fruit flavors and a web of lithe, fine tannins that hold long and even. Superbly fresh and full of interest. Drink or hold."
